

2016 FP2020 ANNUAL COMMITMENT UPDATE QUESTIONNAIRE RESPONSE

BRUSH FOUNDATION

HTTP://WWW.FAMILYPLANNING2020.ORG/BRUSH-FOUNDATION

In August 2016, the Brush Foundation shared the following update on progress in achieving its Family Planning 2020 commitment during the 2015-2016 time period (commitment included for reference below).

FINANCIAL UPDATES

- The Brush Foundation has fulfilled its commitment of contributing $30,000 toward global family planning efforts. Specifically, the foundation has provided $25,000 to Pathfinder International and $5,000 to Family Planning 2020's Rapid Response Mechanism to supports grants that fill urgent gaps and unforeseen time-bound opportunities to accelerate progress toward expanding access to family planning information, services, and supplies.
- In 2015, the Brush Foundation extended its FP2020 commitment to a total contribution of $50,000 toward global family planning efforts. The Brush Foundation has fulfilled this commitment by awarding $25,000 to Pathfinder International and $25,000 to the Guttmacher Institute for its international sexual and reproductive health and rights advocacy work.

2016 FP2020 ANNUAL COMMITMENT UPDATE QUESTIONNAIRE RESPONSE

The following text is the commitment made by the Brush Foundation in 2014 to Family Planning 2020. To review the commitment online, please visit: <http://www.familyplanning2020.org/brush-foundation>.

The Brush Foundation works toward a future in which family planning world-wide is available, affordable, acceptable, effective and safe. The foundation's mission is to support organizations that advance the freedom of reproductive choice; promote access to and utilization of direct family planning services; disseminate reliable information on reproductive health and choice; support effective, accurate and comprehensive adolescent education on reproductive health and sexuality; and work toward responsible public policies for reproductive health.

FINANCIAL COMMITMENTS

Brush Foundation commits to contributing $30,000 toward global family planning efforts in 2014. Specifically, the foundation commits $25,000 to Pathfinder International and contributing $5,000 to Family Planning 2020's Rapid Response Mechanism to supports grants that fill urgent gaps and unforeseen time-bound opportunities to accelerate progress toward expanding access to family planning information, services and supplies.

Update: The Brush Foundation extended its commitment to contributing $50,000 toward global family planning efforts across 2015.